The Lost

By Frank Hatch

Atheist & Theist, Agnostic & Gnostic

All Wrong, All Lost

*“Hear and hear, but do not understand;
see and see, but do not perceive.”
Isaiah 6:9*

To break the restriction of a linear time sequence, the Lost need empirical data – uncorrupted, honest data. However, the Lost have filtered all their data with a scientific-religious presumption: a finite universe with a finite number of dimensions. The Lost do not understand, nor do they perceive their conflict with the infinite Universe and the infinite number of dimensions...

*“...nothing can be added to it,
nor anything taken from it...”
Ecclesiastes 3:14*

With their cosmic presumption that they can calculate the beginning and end of their integral analysis, the Lost have short-circuited their empirical data. Indeed, all their truncated data has been corrupted by the demand of their analysis. A demanding analysis is only possible when an individual is absorbed by that analysis (i.e., when an individual resolves the objective/subjective thought paradox). By resolving (i.e., short-circuiting) the objective/subjective paradox, the objective acquires a subjective modifier: obsessed. Their pride in their objectivity should have warned them of their obsession; but objectivity ceases to be a source information as it becomes a source of pride.

“...He has put eternity into man’s mind, yet so that man cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.”
Ecclesiastes 3:11

Children know how to draw a circle and pretend that their drawing is a ball or the Moon. Adults can do the same, but they don’t have as much fun as children. Adults tend to take themselves too seriously, and use their drawings in a formal thesis. Children can laugh at their own drawings and at themselves. When children stop laughing, they are usually pretending to be adults; but they are still able to laugh at the pretense. When children can no longer laugh, a crime has been committed. The children have been forced to become self-absorbed adults.

“See that you do not despise one of these little ones;
for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold
the face of my Father who is in heaven;
for the Son of man came to save the lost.”

Matthew 18:10-11

Adults have lost their sense irony and the joy of laughing; they use a knowing laugh to escape the stress of adulthood. Thus, adults know how to sneer, but their sense of irony degenerates into sarcasm. The self-congratulatory smile or smirk is used by the stewards of the various religions and cosmic philosophies.

“Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them;
for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 19:14

A 3-dimensional universe surrounded by a void is an easy model to draw on a school blackboard. Use a dot and a circle. On the blackboard void, you can call the dot a really small bubble of unified forces; then call the circle a really big bubble full of galaxies. Adding a linear time sequence to your model (i.e., dot-to-circle tangents), you can indicate the relationship between the two bubbles. Your model started in a really short time (small bubble) and will end only after a really long time (somewhere past the big bubble). Since your bubble universe is surrounded by a void, you really don't know what really means. Indeed, you can't know what small, big, short time, or long time means except as you related it to your self - but you don't know yourself; and you don't know your species. Thinking yourself to be a romantic spaceman floating in a void, your pride demands applause for seeing nothing. You've blinded yourself.

“Let them alone; they are blind guides.
And if a blind man leads a blind man,
both will fall into a pit.”
Matthew 15:14

Instead of a melancholy romantic, you should call yourself a cosmic magician. Thus, you can avoid practical logic and provide entertainment: dialectical logic. Begin your Small universe with a Big Bang then end it with a Big Crunch, Big Chill, Big Rip, Big Oscillation, Big... well, something Big, because pride has taken control of your cosmic analysis.

“I AM”
Exodus 3:14

Pride will attempt to synthesize any knowledge when your objectivity becomes obsessed. Self-esteem, self-definition, self-awareness are all reduced to being a finite problem by a finite personality (i.e., by an integrated personality). The synthesis of cosmic forces is only a distraction to avoid the eternal problem of I AM. By restricting thinking to a defined physiochemical brain, all knowledge becomes finite and digestible to your pride. Abraham, however, made use of both the finite and the infinite.

“Behold, I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord,
I who am but dust and ashes.”
Genesis 18:27

Accepting the humility of being finite, yet daring to converse with the infinite, Abraham uses the Objective/Subjective thought Paradox (i.e., perceiving from the outside-in and perceiving from the inside-out simultaneously). Using the infinite/finite paradox of his existence, Abraham didn't bang his head on the ground, nor did he chant memorized verses with some pre-determinists. Abraham negotiated as an individual responsible for his actions – I have taken upon myself. He didn't blame his situation on his environment, his community, or his Lord God of justice. He was reasonable to be fearful of the outcome. Abraham confronted the Lord God...with fear.

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom”
Psalm 111:10

In contrast to Abraham's insight and fear, the various religious and philosophical traditions use more comfortable and less fearful rationalizations to existence. These traditions and discernments depend on a dialectical analysis of the human situation (i.e., a truncated resolution of the self/species paradox). Group-think, Group-prayer, Group-obedience are the main characteristics of dialectical worshipers. The stewards of these worshipers are more interested in housekeeping rules than any commandment of God. They like group-prayer positioning problems; they like bowing; they like getting bows; they like obedience; they like memorized verses and slogans; they like chanting; they like dietary rules; they like showboating righteousness; and best of all: the stewards like donations. Indeed, the stewards

(i.e., teachers, leaders, scholars, sages, gurus, imans, etc.) are very suspicious of individuals that actually believe in God rather than a rationalization of God. The stewards want a rational god; in other words: a god obedient to a steward's rationalizations. The stewards don't like paradoxes. The Trinity paradox of the One God can not be digested by a steward.

“This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.”
Matthew 15:8-9 (Isaiah 29:13-14)

By ignoring the infinite/finite paradox of existence, the mind/brain paradox can also be ignored. Indeed, the terms of mind and brain are used interchangeably with an assumption of a finite physiochemical phenomenon. With a finite mind/brain synthesis, any infinite sequence can be reduced to a closed system of analysis (i.e., closed nerve cycle). Taking pride in a finite analysis is taking pride in dust and ashes. At best, it's silly. Taking pride in humility is the worst form of Pride: the abomination of a serpent swallowing its tail. Pride is always looking for a “knowledge” meal; but, to be digestible, Pride's meal must always be self-defined and finite. The only opposition to such Pride is the eternal Eucharist: the infinite-yet-digestible love.

“‘Knowledge’ puffs up, but love builds up.”
1 Corinthians 8:1

Once the bubble universe has been encapsulated in a Void, more dimensions can be added to puff up the bubble. Thus, unexplained forces can be integrated or rationalized by any self-appointed genius. Since an infinite number of dimensions will burst the fragile bubble, the new cosmic magician (genius?) must avoid Reality to save his bubble. The cosmic magician can be cured by the eternal Eucharist; but he must let go of his over-cured Pride.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven;
my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.
For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.”

John 6:32-33

Reality is always inconvenient to any cosmic analysis predicting the beginning and end of the Universe.

“But of that day and hour no one knows,
not even the angels of heaven,
nor the Son, but the Father only.

Mathew 24:36

I don't want to discourage an engineer from using an integral analysis, for unlike the cosmologist, spiritualist, psychologist, guru, imam, etc...the engineer knows his integral; he can measure it. The engineer knows what he wants to build, and he knows its limitations. Building a bridge, an airplane, or a spaceship are practical projects for a species made out of dust, ashes, and water: carbon-based mud.

“then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life;
and man became a living being.”

Genesis 2:7

The problem arises when a crippled member of such a mud species claims to be a genius (i.e., super smart or spiritually enlightened). Since a mud individual has a short life span, an active mud intellect is frequently wasted defining itself. The other members his species are more practical: with love, they can leave themselves and leave their definition to their Creator. Thus, the active intellect becomes a handicap: a mud computer locked in an infinite loop – stuck on its self. The Void is dominant to the active intellect; because the Void is a convenient dead-end. However, the Void is only dominant on a school blackboard or a computer screen. The Void can not encapsulate the eternal Universe. The Universe encapsulates the Void. In Reality, existence dominates non-existence.

“...wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.”

Ecclesiastes 2:13

A fragile bubble universe surrounded by a void has an illusion of completeness necessary for a formal thesis. Reality, however, is always inconvenient to a formal thesis: Reality always prefers fun to analysis. Bubbles were made for popping. Healthy children enjoy water balloon fights.

Unhealthy adults are always looking for peace, quiet, and dignity. The adult bubble universe is free of stress, tension, and paradoxes: an Absolute Idea – a polished Idol.

“You may freely eat of every tree of the garden;
but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil
you shall not eat,
for in the day that you eat of it
you shall die.”
Genesis 2:16-17

Dialectical logic is found in the core of Eastern and Western thought. It is a common flaw to the human species. Although the various human cultures have developed their own methods of using this flaw, it is not simply a cultural defect. However, since each culture uses this flaw to defend and to define itself, every attempt to correct the flaw is perceived to be an attack on the culture itself. Islamists are particularly sensitive to this perceived attack; because the dialectical Absolute of the Koran is found in the attempt to synthesize the Old and New Testaments.

“No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it upon an old garment; if he does, he will tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old. And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins. And no one after drinking old wine desires new; for he says, ‘The old is better.’”

Luke 5:36-39

For any acceptable discussion among devote Moslem scholars, the Islamic synthesis of an incomplete Bible would be restricted to classical Arabic. Thus, the Koran has a practical defense against outsiders. Indeed, recent converts to Islam will always be considered to be second-class Moslems. The recent Islamic converts trying to be super Moslems or martyrs is evidence of second-class Moslems. If Moslem scholars say I'm not qualified to discuss the Koran, I can only agree with them; I don't use Arabic. However, Moslem scholars are probably not aware that they have an even better argument against me: I have no affection for them. I have no doubt that God loves them, but I don't. (NOTE: I consider this fact to be a defect in myself – not in God.) Despite my defect, the Moslem scholars' situation is not hopeless; there are better Christians than myself available to help them. As a Christian layman I have a natural liking for the Moslem laymen; unlike scholars, laymen need to live their paradoxes rather than rationalize them.

*“I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes;
yea, Father, for such was thy gracious will.”
Matthew 11:25-26*

Although all scripture should be used for instruction in the Word of God, no language is complex enough for a complete delineation of the Word of God. Any illusion of completeness in scripture can only be derived from self-delusion (i.e., dialectical logic). The incompleteness of all scripture is an invitation to contrast your Certainty with your Uncertainty – a narrow gate to further instruction in the Word of God.

“In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.”
John 1:1

I just quoted the Gospel according to John in English (Revised Standard Version). I didn't use magic words. I used English. When I've asked people to write to me in English, it is not because I'm using a sacred language – it is because I'm not competent in other languages. I've never objected to having my words translated into another language. No human language has a monopoly on Truth. If my Bible is damaged from neglect or vandalism, I'll go to the bookstore and buy another one. I won't riot. I won't declare a jihad. I won't even care what jihad means.

“And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth;
we have beheld his glory,
glory as of the only Son from the Father.”
John 1:14

In classical Arabic, the Koran is used for memorization and chant. By making their language large and their god small, they've got a pretty book - a polished idol. Since the dialectical Absolute of the Koran is found in Mohammed's synthesis of an incomplete Bible, the Koran has become the Idol against all idols. (This is consistent with the Pride against all prides: the Pride of Hell.) If you want evidence that the Koran is an idol, simply make a public announcement that you're going to burn one. To be murdered in Afghanistan, all you need to do is to translate one. If you like European riots, draw a cartoon of its author. The Islamic rioters' prostration to Mohammed's Koran would be an annoyance to Gabriel. Only Lucifer insists on bowing and prostration. Gabriel won't tolerate it.

*“Gabriel, make this man understand the vision.’
So he came near where I stood;
I was frightened and fell upon my face.
But he said to me,
‘Understand, O son of man,
that the vision is for the time of the end.’
...he touched me and set me on my feet.”
Daniel 8:16-18*

In the primary eternal sequence (Jacob's ladder)...

*“...a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven;
and behold,
the angels of God were ascending and descending on it!”
Genesis 28:12*

...the difference between an archangel and a worm is insignificant. Gabriel knows this fact and accepts it. Lucifer knows this fact and hates it. Michael knows this fact and enforces it. The fact is the Law of the personal God – the Jealous God.

“...I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel...
...but he said to me,
‘You must not do that!’
...Worship God.’”
Revelation 22:8-9

To Worship God, you must first ignore timing, direction, and location. Like Abraham, you must approach the Lord God as an individual, not as a group. Indeed, it is best if no one knows that you are praying. Your prayer should be for God only.

“But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret;
and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.
Matthew 6:6

If you're in lock-step bowing and chanting a group-prayer, you're not praying to God. You're showboating. If you're fortunate, God will ignore you. But the smallest free thought will break you out of a group-prayer or a group-think slogan. For example: The next time your head touches the ground with your butt in the air thinking, "We look righteous," change the thought to the truth: "We look ridiculous."

“God is spirit, and those who worship him
must worship in spirit and truth.
John 4:24

When individual Moslems determine that their submission to their group is wrong, the individuals should expect a response to their individual prayers. Their individuality and uniqueness of purpose is known only to their Creator - not to Islam and not to this website. This website is not a new religion or another denomination to Christianity. Whether your group is righteous or idolatrous, the Lord God takes note of individuals not groups. Like a group of trapped miners, you must leave the mine one at a time.

“What man of you, having a hundred sheep,
if he has lost one of them,
does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it?”
Luke 15:4

The Lord is looking for an honest child's prayer made with eyes to see and ears to hear. If you are unable to pray as an individual, this website is useless to you. You need empirical data. You need your individuality: your own eyes, your own ears, your own brain, your own mind... Thus says the Lord:

“But this is the man to whom I look,
he that is humble and contrite in spirit,
and trembles at my word.”
Isaiah 66:2

Since entropy is a constant concern in finite rationalizations, the human species has withdrawn to a mosaic of defensive lines. Behind each defensive line, a group of people try to define themselves relative to the rest of the species.

Religious, philosophical, political, racial, etc...dialectical concepts are defined to be liked or disliked by variety of leavening stewards – that is, “puffed-up” stewards.

(Please Note: Since I dislike stewards, I’ve left myself open to a charge of hypocrisy. I’ve assumed that a steward’s wise-benevolent smirk can only be answered with a water balloon. Also, I consider top hats to be fair targets for snowballs and white turbans to be fair targets for mud balls.)

“Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Matthew 16:6

Thus, individual Christians in their denominational disputes (i.e., dialectical disputes) are commanded to wash each others feet:

“If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet,
you also ought to wash one another’s feet.”

John 13:14

Dialectical worshipers, however, can not admit to having any dispute that doesn’t have a rational resolution. The great rationalization image of a variety metals appears bright and mighty; but the image rests on iron and clay feet.

“...a stone was cut out by no human hand, and it smote the image on its feet of iron and clay,
and broke them in pieces...”

Daniel 2:34

No human rationalization will hold; just as no mixture of iron and miry clay will hold. All dialectics of a mud species break up starting at the feet – the basic assumptions of their analysis.

“As you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, so they will mix with one another in marriage,
but they will not hold together,
just as iron does not mix with clay.

Daniel 2:43

In answer to David’s prayer: a Stone that can break the feet of all dialectics can be a Rock to stand on.

“He drew me up from the desolate pit,
out of the miry clay,
and set my feet upon a rock,
making my steps secure.”

Psalms 40:2

As you wish yourself well, you should also wish others well. That is the Second Law. That is the Law of Neighbors ...

“And who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:29

Your neighbor can only be found in an individual. Only individuals know mercy. As the Islamic woman is being stoned to death, she cries, “Mercy!” But no mercy can come from a group of Islamic assassins. The political advantage of a “mercy” show must be weighed before the first stone is cast; their white-turban leaders plan their shows well. Individuals locked into their self-righteousness have ceased to function as individuals; they function as mere factors of a determinant group. The group’s determination is to feed, control, and absorb. The group’s master is heartless and soulless:

“My name is Legion; for we are many.”
Mark 5:9

Since human scholars will rationalize anything (including their own absorption), Legion feeds well on the human species. Scholars take pride in their dialectical rationalizations of the self/species paradox, because they have already resolved (short-circuited) the Objective/Subjective thought paradox. Using a truncated definition of self and species, they declare a thesis and antithesis to a philosophical or religious synthesis. This synthesis is treated as an Absolute Idea or Idol. The long-winded process of dialectics begins when the various scholarly groups present their own Absolute to the community as the Truth. However, the human community is more interested the comfort level between individuals rather than finding any truth between individuals; particularly, if it is an uncomfortable truth. Thus, the ancient error of pantheism becomes humanity's stress and tension solution: the comfortable solution (e.g., the Pale-Blue-Dot religion).

“There is a way which seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.”

Proverbs 14:12

This pantheism solution is a synthesis between the natural instincts of self and species preservation. It is an eclectic soup of Determinism, Hinduism, Naturalism, Hegelianism, Materialism, Buddhism, Darwinism, Islamism, Cao-Daism, etc.... absorbing the general thinkers of Atheism & Theism, Agnosticism & Gnosticism.

“How is it that you fail to perceive that I did not speak about bread?

Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:11

...Atheism & Theism...Agnosticism & Gnosticism...
These dialectical thinkers are stuck in the old Pharisee-Sadducee mold: they're stuck on themselves. They can not believe nor can they disbelieve; they can not know nor can they doubt. Since the process of doubt is beyond them, they can't separate the Certainty from the Uncertainty of their situation (no Rock to stand on). In their fruitless dialectical debates, they use each other as straw men to define themselves. Rising only to take bows for a polished argument, they sit inside their space counting seconds go by. They're blind. They're deaf. They're lost.

“There is a way which seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.”

Proverbs 16:25

Atheists, Theists, Agnostics, Gnostics, all use their own dialectical analysis of the human situation. They are all wrong. They are all lost. The primary mistake of each of these thinkers' analyses is their perceived location. By restricting themselves to a finite-dimensional space with a linear time sequence, these thinkers have blinded themselves to their true location. They have all assumed that they know the correct location both of themselves and their species. They don't.

“...the serpent said to the woman,
'You will not die.

For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened,
and you will be like God,
knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:4-5

Thus, truncating your thesis and antithesis to form your “god-like” synthesis, you've committed suicide. By restricting your rationalization to a finite number dimensions and variables, you used a Closed System of Analysis. Since entropy is the primary characteristic of a Closed System, the natural result of your mistake is death.

“Now the serpent was more subtle than any other wild creature that the Lord God had made.”

Genesis 3:1

The reason that the serpent has tempted the human species with dialectical logic is obvious: the serpent is an enemy.

“The Lord God said to the serpent, ‘Because you have done this,
cursed are you above all cattle,
and above all wild animals;
upon your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.’”

Genesis 3:14

Lucifer hates being a worm; but the archangel Michael enforces the Lord’s command. While humans are thinking that they have become knowledgeable and insightful, their eyes have only opened to an empty space or the stomach of a serpent. By punctuating honest anger with bursts of impotent rage, the human species has been hard-wired into being blind, docile, and suicidal... A serpent’s pet (scholar) or a serpent’s food.

“In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken;
you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

Genesis 3:19

While humans are busy lying to themselves, serpents choose their lies more practically. When you're a worm (i.e., adversary, prince of darkness, Serpent, Satan, Devil), you'll want to pretend to be something "pretty": like an angel of light – Lucifer.

“I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.”
Luke 10:18

“Low tension, Low stress,” is the mantra of the human priesthood appointed by the prince of this world.

“Now is the judgment of this world:
now shall the prince of this world be cast out.”
John 12:31

The human species is treated with contempt by its enemies, because it works for its enemies. In their attempted escape from tension and stress, humans follow their own species into destruction with self-absorption. Indeed, individual humans will even abort their own children to escape the tension and stress of their parenthood.

“For behold,
the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren,
and the wombs that never bore,
and the breasts that never gave suck!’”
Luke 23:29

In the reduction of tension and stress, each psychological method will be tested to its limits. Whether your method is religion, philosophy, or drugs; whether you're righteous, idolatrous, or barbaric: you will be tested to your death limit – and beyond. Each of your attempts to escape tension and stress will be frustrated; and each of your escape attempts will cause an increase in tension and stress.

“And in those days men will seek death and will not find it;
they will long to die,
and death will fly from them.”
Revelation 9:6

You must learn to use tension and stress as a source of energy. You won't be allowed escape it. You won't be allowed to hide from it.

“Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the generals and the rich and the strong,
and every one, slave and free,
hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,
calling to the mountains and rocks,
‘Fall on us and hide us...’”
Revelation 6:15-16

Both fear and joy have tension and stress. If you seek out the Fear of the Lord, you will receive the tension and stress of Joy (Narrow Gate). If you try to rationalize or hide from the Fear of the Lord, you will receive the tension and stress of Fear (Wide Gate).

*“Enter by the narrow gate;
for the gate is wide and the way is easy,
that leads to destruction,
and those who enter by it are many.
For the gate is narrow and the way is hard,
that leads to life,
and those who find it are few.”
Matthew 7:13-14*

The Final Notice paraphrases the Extermination Notice of the human species. Since humans are a sentient species, they will be required to participate in their own extermination. Only one member of the human species is required to receive the Extermination Notice. This requirement was fulfilled with Jesus Christ:

*“Weep not; behold,
the Lion of the tribe of Judah,
the Root of David,
has conquered,
so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”
Revelation 5:5*
